

Disability Insurance – Group Voluntary

Unum's group voluntary disability insurance provides a solid base of income protection coverage combined with valuable resources for any employee population. Short- and long-term plans are available.

Working without a net:

When hit with a $1,000 or more emergency expense, 57% of U.S. adults said they'd use credit cards, borrow from family and friends, or take out personal loans to pay for it.¹

Long-term disability advantages:

- » Own-occupation & two-year own-occupation definitions of disability
- » Benefit duration to the Social Security normal retirement age
- » Income replacement options include 40%, 50%, or 60%
- » Maximum benefit up to $5,000 per month (higher monthly benefit limits available)
- » No minimum earnings loss required during elimination period for most contracts; 20% of indexed monthly earnings thereafter
- » Up to 100% (indexed) earnings replacement for 12 months while disabled and working
- » Does not offset an employer's salary continuation program (formal or informal)
- » Elimination period – 90 days, 120 days, 180 days, or 360 calendar days

Short-term disability advantages:

- » Residual definition of disability
- » Benefit duration choices of 13 or 26 weeks
- » Income replacement options include 50% or 60%
- » Maximum benefit up to $1,500 per week
- » 14-day elimination period for accident and illness

Elimination period is the length of time of continuous disability that must be satisfied before a participant is eligible to receive benefits from the policy. The definition of disability must be satisfied in order to qualify for benefits. Groups often select elimination periods that follow the end of their sick leave or accumulated sick bank. Additional choices are available upon request.

Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance

Unum has a vocational Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance program available to assist claimants in returning to work. The insurance company will make the final determination of the claimant's eligibility for participation in the program and will provide them with a written Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance plan developed specifically for them. If the claimant participates in a Rehabilitation and Return to Work Assistance program, Unum will also pay an additional disability benefit of 10% of their gross disability payment up to a maximum of $250 per week.

Definition of Disability

The residual definition is outlined as follows:

A participant is disabled when it is determined that:

- » The participant is limited from performing the material and substantial duties of their regular occupation due to their sickness or injury.
- » The participant has a 20% or more loss in weekly earnings due to the same sickness or injury.
- » The participant must be under the regular care of a physician in order to be considered disabled.

Requirements to participate

- » 20% of a local association's membership must enroll in the disability plan in order for coverage to become effective.
- » Local association decides on elimination period and benefit offerings prior to obtaining a quote.
- » All members of a local association will receive a customized enrollment kit and elect to choose or refuse coverage.
- » Local association will need to provide census information, including all members' date of hire, date of birth, gender, salary, and Social Security number if possible.
- » Local association will distribute the kits and be responsible for retrieving and returning to Unum for review.
- » District must administer the plan.
- » Once Unum determines the 20% threshold has been satisfied, coverage will go into effect.

To get started, local associations should contact their NYSUT Member Benefits representative, who will discuss the process and refer them to the appropriate Unum representative.
